***************** (Special Telegram to Eventag Herata) Gallup, N. M., April 26,-Fifty feet or the Santa Fe coul chutes in Gallup were ourned shortly after $ 30 o'clock this morning. Several cars of coal on the chaics became ignited and a furid blaze resulted, sit being believed for o time that buil the town was burning up. Herole work by a switch engine erow caused the burning cars of coal to be pulled away from the chutes, saving the latter from entire destruction. The fire was caused by a yard employe, who, with a lighted torch in his hands, was filling an engine tank with oil. The torch set fire to the chutes. The pard man became excited and fulled to close the off apout when he jumped on the engine and ran it away from the danger zone. The oil ran out on the ground through the open spout and, catching fire, made a hig blase and one that was very difficult to extinguish. Everybody in town turned out to the fire and there was considerable excitement, assisted by volunteers, succeed-
